From Father Khoa's Desk... This Sunday we commemorate the day Jesus entered Jerusalem and the people greeted Him with olive branches. Before the blessing of the palms, we will hear the story of Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem and how the people were crying out, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest." In the Gospel reading that we hear today, we will see how quickly things changed for Jesus. Jesus' kingship seen as a sign of glory, soon becomes a source of mockery and derision. People who hailed Jesus and cried out, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord," soon change their tune and cry out, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!"

Jesus faced something similar during His journey to Jerusalem. As long as Jesus fed the hungry, healed the sick, or worked miracles, He was a popular man. They gave Him a royal welcome as long as they saw Him as a political messiah. But when Jesus began to emphasize that He was a king of love and peace, and not a military hero, and when He showed that His rule would be through humble obedience, then they saw Him as a threat to the religious authorities. When He started breaking the social and religious barriers, and He showed that He loved everyone and loved them unconditionally, and He asked people to have a change of heart, then the cheering stopped. The cheering turned to jeering. On the cross, Jesus became a human failure and literally a broken man. We know that people who become popular are those who make people feel good. But when one tries to change the "feel good" to do good, and one begins to challenge people's attitude and behavior, the cheering stops. This is exactly what happened to Jesus.

Look at Jesus, when the worst thing happened in His life, He did not allow that situation to break Him. He did question God, but He knew that it was not what He wanted, but God's will must be done. He was aware that if God the Father had allowed the cross and suffering in His life, He would have the strength to carry it; and in the end, make Him victorious. That is the faith we need to have: if God has allowed certain things to happen in our lives, He will take us through them, He will help us to overcome them and in the end, make us victorious. God expects us to hold on to that faith, for which we need to pray for! Will I be the popular guy who makes people feel good, or am I ready to be the unpopular guy who challenges people to do good? What will I do if/when the cheering stops? I need to remember that the Jesus story does not end on the cross; there is the empty tomb. It does not end on Friday, but it begins a new chapter on Sunday. May God bless you! Fr. Khoa

GUIDELINES FOR LENTEN OBSERVANCE:

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence. Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.

Fasting binds all persons who have completed their 18th birthday through those who have completed their 59th year, unless prevented by poor health. On days of fast, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals sufficient to maintain strength may be taken according to one's own needs. Eating between meals is not allowed although fluids may be taken.

Abstinence binds all persons who have completed their 14th birthday, unless prevented by poor health. On days of abstinence during Lent, the consumption of meat of mammals or fowl is not allowed. The Church strongly encourages the observance of Friday abstinence throughout the year, but failure to do so is not regarded as sinful. Lent is a penitential season and as such religious practice such as daily Mass, reception of the Sacrament of Penance, the devotion of the Stations of the Cross, recite the Rosary, works of charity and justice, and acts of self-denial are highly encouraged.

Catholic Sharing Appeal: Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, it is time for our annual Catholic Share Appeal (CSA). I ask that you prayerfully consider participating in this year's appeal. The CSA funds many important Diocese-wide ministries that no one parish could provide, for example, Catholic Deaf Community, The Twelve Basket, Priesthood, Permanent Diaconate, Youth Formation/Support, retirement for the priest and so on. The ministries that benefit from CSA are fully identified in the CSA brochure found in the back of the church. Bishop Louis Kihneman has asked each parish to provide a share to this important Diocesan appeal.

Bereavement Committee: Please contact Jolene, 228-341-4044 to join one of our groups that cook/bake a dish for a parishioner's family following funeral. Thank you.
